Notice of the 96th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders

Translated document

This notice has been prepared in English solely for the convenience of foreign readers, based on the Shoushu-Gotsuchi for Mitsui's 96th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. The original report in Japanese is definitive.

Terminology

In this translated report, the terms the "Company" refer to Mitsui & Co., Ltd.

MITSUI & CO., LTD.

From the President

We are pleased to bring you notice of the 96th annual general meeting of shareholders. Please allow me to introduce myself. I am Tatsuo Yasunaga. I took the office of President and Chief Executive Officer of Mitsui & Co., Ltd. on April 1, 2015.

While the global economy is continuing to grow moderately on the strength of the United States, the growth in the emerging countries is continuing to slow. This has ushered in a period of supply and demand adjustment in the international commodities market price. Moreover, much care needs to be taken concerning the rising geopolitical risks in the Middle East and elsewhere. Against this backdrop, there are ever-growing challenges in the fields of global infrastructure, energy, food, health, communications, and transportation, and we continue to strategically invest our company's business resources to undertake initiatives to find solutions for these challenges.

Having entered the second year of our New Medium-term Management Plan, we will not only strictly adhere to investment rules centered on cash flows but also refine our capabilities in terms of heightening our competitiveness and business development capability. In these ways we will build earnings base in accordance with "Key Strategic Domains."

Our goal is to create value that meets our customer's needs, and to contribute to a sustainable society. We will achieve our goal by putting into practice "360° business innovation," which is to connect multiple businesses, ideas and information in the various regions across the globe that leads us to innovate business and industry.

On behalf of the board and our organization as a whole, I look forward to your ongoing support.

May 2015

Tatsuo Yasunaga
President and Chief Executive Officer
Mitsui & Co., Ltd.

I. BUSINESS REVIEW

1. Operating environment

During the fiscal year under review, the global economy recovered moderately overall, but while economies in advanced countries recovered, driven by the United States economy, the extent of recovery varied as the slowdown continued in emerging economies.

In financial markets, the dollar strengthened against most other currencies owing to economic disparity and differences in the direction of monetary policy between the United States and other major countries, and commodity prices fell, mainly crude oil, against a backdrop of slowing economic growth in emerging market economies that are big resource consumers, and other factors.

In the United States economy, firm expansion continued as a result of increasing consumer spending due to an expanded employment and higher stock prices, coupled with firm capital investment backed by improvement in corporate earnings, as well as a rebounded housing market. In the face of these economic conditions, the Federal Reserve ended its quantitative easing measures in October 2014.

In the European economy, domestic demand stagnated against a backdrop of a high unemployment rate, banks' reluctance to lend, and other factors, but a recovery trend is gradually gaining momentum, backed by the introduction of quantitative easing and the weakening euro.

In the Chinese economy, the growth rate continued to slow as capital investment and investment in real estate development slowed against a backdrop of cuts to excess production capacity, mostly in the raw material sector, adjustments to the housing market and other factors, despite monetary easing in small increments and government infrastructure investment in constructing railroads. Meanwhile, in other emerging economies, some countries faced depreciated currencies owing to capital flight overseas and an increase in foreign debt, mainly countries with current account deficits and those where structural reform is delayed, meaning attention must be paid to swings in emerging economies.

In the Japanese economy, the significant fall in consumer spending and investment in housing continued in the first half of the fiscal year, owing to the effect of the increase in consumption tax in April 2014. However, in the second half of the fiscal year, the economy began a moderate recovery, as additional monetary quantitative easing measures were implemented, leading to a weaker yen and higher stock prices, economic measures totaling over ¥3 trillion in government spending were implemented, and demand recovered both in Japan and abroad.

2. Operating results, financial condition, etc.

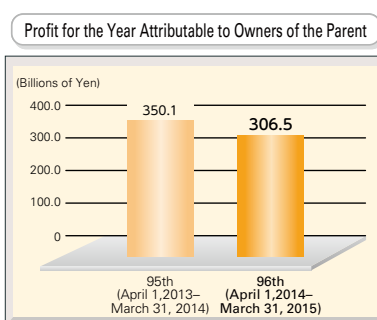

1. Results of Operations

◆ Gross Profit for the year ended March 31, 2015 totaled ¥845.8 billion, a decline of ¥34.3 billion from the corresponding previous year. The Mineral & Metal Resources Segment reported a decline due to lower iron ore prices despite the positive impact of exchange rate fluctuations, higher sales volume, and other factors. The Iron & Steel Products Segment reported a decline due to the reversal effect of solid sales of tubular products including line pipe in the corresponding previous year. Meanwhile, the Machinery & Infrastructure Segment reported an increase, attributable to an increase in trading volume of commercial ships.

◆ Share of Profit of Investments Accounted for Using the Equity Method for the year ended March 31, 2015 was ¥144.6 billion, a decline of ¥26.6 billion from the corresponding previous year. The Mineral & Metal Resources Segment reported a decline due to additional recognition of a deferred tax liability at a copper mining company in Chile reflecting the tax system revision in Chile, and Vale S.A., a Brazilian resource company, a subsidiary of Valepar S.A., reported losses due to lower iron ore prices and foreign exchange valuation on debt. Also, Robe River Mining Co. Pty. Ltd., an iron ore mining company in Australia, reported a decline due to lower iron ore prices.

◆ Profit for the Year Attributable to Owners of the Parent for the year ended March 31, 2015 totaled ¥306.5 billion, a decline of ¥43.6 billion from the corresponding previous year. In addition to the above, the main reasons for the decrease were:

◎ Gain on Securities and Other Investments—Net increased by ¥11.7 billion from the corresponding previous year to ¥42.5 billion. Gains on the sale of a stake in relation to aviation business, the sales of the stakes in Silver Bell Mining, LLC and Shanghai Senmao International Real Estate Co., Ltd. were recorded.

- ⊙ Impairment Loss of Fixed Assets was ¥79.9 billion, a deterioration of ¥19.9 billion. Impairment losses related to Eagle Ford shale oil and gas producing operations and oil and gas fields in the North Sea were recorded.
- ⊙ Gain on Disposal or Sales of Fixed Assets—Net was ¥1.4 billion, a decline of ¥15.0 billion. For the corresponding previous year, gains on the sales of interests in oil fields and office buildings were recorded.
- ⊙ Other Expenses (Income) – Net was ¥34.9 billion loss, a deterioration of ¥13.2 billion. Exploration expenses increased, including those recorded at oil and gas producing businesses.
- ⊙ Dividend Income declined by ¥9.9 billion to ¥114.1 billion. Dividends from LNG (liquefied natural gas) projects declined.
- ⊙ Income Taxes declined by ¥71.8 billion to ¥104.9 billion. Income taxes declined in response to a decline in profit before income taxes, and a tax system revision in Japan.

◆ EBITDA(*) declined by ¥31.3 billion to ¥788.3 billion.

(*) We use EBITDA as a measure of underlying earning power from the year ended March 31, 2015.

EBITDA is the total of “Gross profit,” “Selling, general and administrative expenses,” “Dividend income” and “Share of profit of investments accounted for using the equity method” from the consolidated statements of income and “Depreciation and amortization” from the consolidated statements of cash flows.

- ◆ Return on Equity (“ROE”) for the year ended March 31, 2015 was 7.7%, 2.0 point down from the 9.7% recorded in the corresponding previous year.

2. Financial Condition and Cash Flows

Financial Condition

Total assets as of March 31, 2015 were ¥12,202.9 billion, an increase of ¥711.6 billion from the previous fiscal year-end. Of these, non-current assets increased by ¥446.5 billion, mainly due to the impact of depreciation of the Japanese yen and new investments.

Net interest-bearing debt (interest-bearing debt minus cash and cash equivalents and time deposits) increased by ¥203.4 billion to ¥3,382.2 billion. Meanwhile,

Shareholders' equity^(*) increased by ¥284.0 billion to ¥4,099.8 billion, mainly owing to an increase in retained earnings and an increase in foreign currency translation adjustments due to the depreciation of the Japanese yen. As a result, the net debt-to-equity ratio ("Net DER") was 0.82 times, 0.01 points lower as of the previous fiscal year-end.

(*) The term "Shareholders' equity" refers to "Total equity attributable to owners of the parent" as shown in the "Consolidated Statements of Financial Position" on page 36.

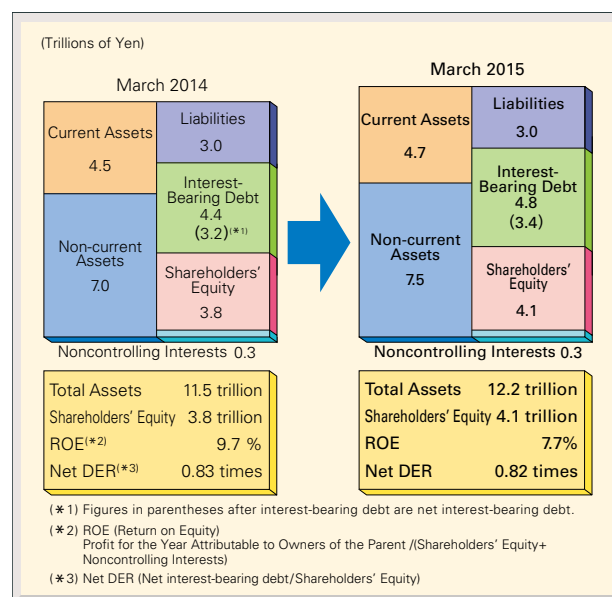

Cash Flows

Net cash provided by operating activities for the year ended March 31, 2015 was ¥640.0 billion, an increase of ¥190.8 billion from the corresponding previous year.

Core operating cash flow, cash flows from operating activities without the net cash outflow from an increase in working capital, amounted to ¥661.6 billion, an increase of ¥52.7 billion.

Net cash used in investing activities was ¥386.4 billion, a decline of ¥273.4 billion, owing mainly to new investments. As a result, free cash flow – the sum of net cash provided by operating activities and net cash used in investing activities – was a net inflow of ¥253.6 billion.

Net cash used in financing activities was ¥126.2 billion, an increase of ¥113.0 billion from the corresponding previous year.

3. Overview of Operating Segments

The Company develops business activities by structuring its business organization along two axes: products and regions. The product axis comprises headquarters business units, which operate independently under their respective product strategies. Headquarters business units also cooperate horizontally across business units to better deploy the Company's comprehensive strength. The regional axis consists of regional business units, which are staffed by experts in the respective local markets who build close relationships with leading companies in those markets, and are the cornerstone of the Company's global strategy.

These business units are organized into seven product segments, based on the properties and characteristics of the products they handle, and three regional segments.

Chemicals

● Business Activities

The segment is engaged in a broad range of transactions and investments that contribute to a variety of industries, including new areas like green chemicals, from upstream areas like basic chemicals and fertilizer resources, to downstream areas including functional materials, electronic materials, fertilizer and agrochemicals, and specialty chemicals.

● Main factors behind results

Profit declined owing to unfavorable market conditions in the chlor-alkali producing business in US, and the completion of the ammonia producing business in Indonesia.

Phosphorus ore business in Peru

Energy

● Business Activities

The segment secures and provides a stable supply of energy that is indispensable to industrial society, through investments in businesses including oil, natural gas/LNG, coal, and nuclear fuel, and in logistics transactions. The segment is also working toward the realization of a low carbon society through environmental and next generation energy businesses.

● Main factors behind results

Profit declined due to the recognition of impairment losses related to Eagle Ford shale oil and gas producing operations and oil and gas fields in the North Sea, in addition to an increase in exploration expenses related to oil and gas producing businesses and a decline in dividends received from LNG projects.

- ③ Expanded and diversified IPP business
- ③ Expanded gas distribution business in Brazil
- ③ Capital raising with the aim of doubling the size of railcar leasing business in North America
- ④ Completed expansion of chemical tank terminal in US

IPP(US : Astoria I gas power plant)

US : tank terminal for chemical products

◆ Executed or achieved major milestones in “Projects in the pipeline”

- ② Reached Jimblebar iron ore mine capacity to 35M ton/year in Australia
- ④ Commenced full production of chlor-alkali in US throughout the year
- ⑤ Final investment decision on Cameron LNG project in US

Source : BHP Billiton
Australia : Jimblebar iron ore mine

US : FID on Cameron LNG

Business assets expanded during the Year Ended March 2015

Iron ore business	Equity production : 51M ton/year → 55M ton/year
Oil and gas upstream assets	Equity production : 243kboe/day → 254kboe/day
IPP business	Net generation capacity : 8.5GW → 9.6GW
Grain production and origination business	Handling volume : 15M ton/year → 17.5M ton/year
IHH Healthcare hospital business	Number of beds : approx.5,000 → approx.7,000

(3) Basic Policy ③: Pursue both “New Investments” and “Shareholder Return” backed by strong cash generation capabilities

Core operating cash flow amounted to approximately ¥660.0 billion. Divestiture generated cash flow of approximately ¥340.0 billion, which combined with core operating cash flow amounted to a total of approximately ¥1 trillion. Meanwhile, gross investments and loans totaled approximately ¥715.0 billion. Of this amount, gross investments and loans in Existing Business and Projects in the pipeline totaled approximately ¥525.0 billion, and gross investments and loans in new business totaled approximately ¥190.0 billion. Amid strong demand for new investments for further growth, the Company implemented diligent assessment and screening process before the final investment decision. Regarding shareholder return, we plan to propose an agenda at the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders for a year-end dividend of ¥32 per share, for an annual dividend of ¥64 per share (including an interim dividend of ¥32 per share).

4. Outline of financing and capital expenditure

1. Financing

The basic funding policy of the Company is to secure appropriate liquidity required for our business activities and to maintain financial strength and stability. We procure long-term funds, mostly with maturities of around 10 years, primarily through long-term borrowings from domestic financial institutions, including insurance companies and banks, and the issuance of corporate bonds. In cases where projects require large amounts of financing, we utilize loans from government financing agencies and/or project finance.

In principle, wholly owned subsidiaries procure funds not from financial institutions outside the Group, but by utilizing our Cash Management Service, in which wholly owned subsidiaries can procure financing from overseas and domestic financing subsidiaries and overseas offices of the Company. Through this service, we are promoting centralization of fund raising and the efficient use of funds.

Interest-bearing debt outstanding as of March 31, 2015, totaled ¥4,793.9 billion, marking a ¥382.8 billion increase from the previous fiscal year-end, mainly due to the impact of depreciation of the Japanese yen, and execution of new investments and loans. Net interest-bearing debt (after subtracting cash and cash equivalents) totaled ¥3,382.2 billion, a ¥203.4 billion increase. We will continue to strive to maintain stable fund procurement, while closely monitoring economic and price trends, and the economic environment, in Japan and overseas.

During the year ended March 31, 2015, the Company borrowed long-term funds of ¥400.2 billion in total from insurance companies, banks, and other financial institutions. The Company issued yen-denominated straight domestic corporate bonds totaling ¥25.0 billion and medium-term notes (medium-term corporate bonds in the euro market) totaling US$100 million (approximately ¥12.0 billion). In addition, Japanese and overseas financing subsidiaries and overseas offices procured long-term and short-term borrowings as well as issued commercial paper (short-term corporate bonds) and medium-term notes in accordance with their funding needs.

2. Capital Expenditure

Please refer to pages 12–14 of the “Progress with the New Medium-term Management Plan” for information regarding the Group’s capital expenditures during the fiscal year under review.

- From the year ended March 31, 2015, consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the basis of International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") pursuant to the provisions of Article 120(1) of the Ordinance on Company Accounting. Also, figures from the year ended March 31, 2014 on the basis of IFRS have been provided for reference purposes.
- The value of group assets and operating results is shown based on terms used in IFRS. In terms used in accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP"), "Net income attributable to Mitsui & Co., Ltd." is equivalent to "Profit for the Year Attributable to Owners of the Parent," "Net Income Attributable to Mitsui & Co., Ltd. per Share" is equivalent to "Basic Earnings per Share Attributable to Owners of the Parent," and "Total Mitsui & Co., Ltd. Shareholders' Equity" is equivalent to "Total Equity Attributable to Owners of the Parent."
- Total Trading Transactions is shown voluntarily in accordance with its customary use in Japanese accounting, and the Company believes it is useful to investors as a generally used indicator for general trading companies in Japan. It shows the total value of trading transactions carried out by the Company or its consolidated subsidiaries as contracting parties and commissions received as agents, and it is not equivalent to revenue based on IFRS.
- Basic Earnings per Share Attributable to Owners of the Parent was computed based on the average number of shares outstanding during the fiscal year.
- Figures less than ¥1.0 million and figures less than ¥1 / 100 (in the case of Basic Earnings per Share Attributable to Owners of the Parent) are rounded.

6. Key issues to address

1. Business Plan for the Year Ending March 31, 2016

(1) Establishing “Key Strategic Domains” in line with our core strengths

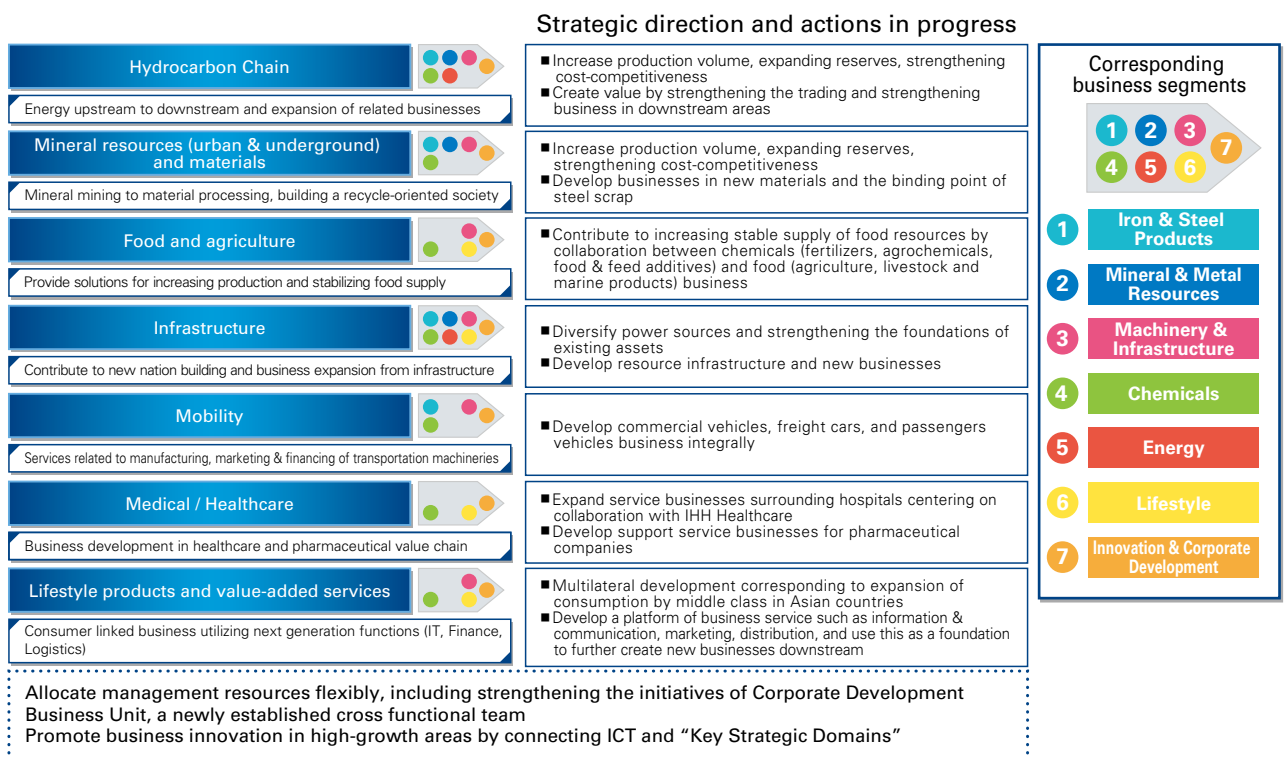

As the diagram below shows, the Company will strengthen its initiatives in each “Key Strategic Domain” as it looks to establish seven “Key Strategic Domains.”

We will fully execute an abundance of Projects in the pipeline in the “Hydrocarbon Chain,” “Mineral resources and materials,” “Infrastructure,” and “Mobility,” and further strengthen “Key Strategic Domains.”

Also, in the year ending March 31, 2016, we will further focus on the three “Key Strategic Domains” of “Food and agriculture,” “Medical/Healthcare,” and “Lifestyle products and value-added services” in particular.

In order to accelerate initiatives toward the establishment of “Key Strategic Domains,” in addition to proactive initiatives by existing corresponding product segments, we will make flexible use of the Corporate Development Business Unit, which was newly established in the Innovation & Corporate Development Segment in April 2015. We will assign personnel experienced in various business investments across the Company, and, while collaborating with product segments, will proactively work on deal sourcing, screening and execution of investment opportunities to establish “Key Strategic Domains.”

Also, in order to accelerate reform in the Company’s business model in the information and communication technology (ICT) area, where business chances are expanding in areas such as the internet, media, and IT services, we newly established IT & Communication Business Unit in the Innovation & Corporate Development Segment in April 2015, aiming to connect each “Key Strategic Domain,” thus promoting innovation in high-growth areas.

(2) Pursue both “New Investments” and “Shareholder Return” backed by strong cash generation capabilities

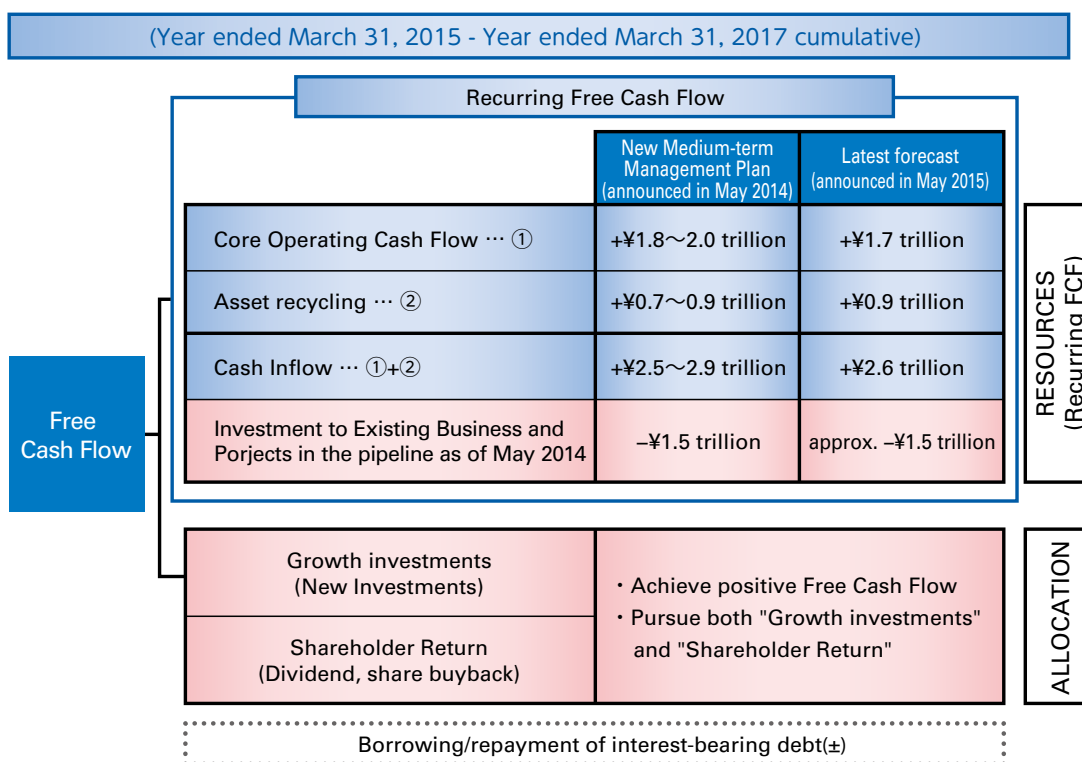

Based on cash flow results in the first year of the New Medium-term Management Plan and the latest outlook for core operating cash flow and asset recycling and other factors, we have revised our outlook for cumulative cash flow over the three years.

As a result, as shown in the diagram below, we expect cumulative core operating cash flow amounting to ¥1,700.0 billion level over the three years. We expect asset recycling activities to generate cash flow at the higher end of originally forecasted range in the New Medium-term Management Plan which is at ¥900.0 billion and, adding the core operating cash flow to this amount, we expect a total cash inflow over the three years of ¥2,600.0 billion, within the range of the New Medium-term Management Plan.

Regarding investments and loans in Existing Business and Projects in the pipeline, the investment plans for most of these has already been decided, therefore no significant change in the figure of ¥1,500.0 billion shown in the New Medium-term Management Plan.

Though the current fall in commodity prices will have a certain impact on the Company’s operating cash flow, there is no change in our plan to generate recurring free cash flow at the level shown in the New Medium-term Management Plan, by enhancing our cash-generating ability in Existing Business as well as promoting asset recycling. We will aim to achieve a positive free cash flow by fully following-through on our investment discipline, and pursue both “growth investments” and “shareholder return.”

<Latest forecast of Cash Flow Allocation>

(3) Profit Distribution Policy

Our profit distribution policy has been resolved as follows at the board of directors through discussion in which external directors were also involved:

- In order to increase corporate value and maximize shareholder value, we seek to maintain an optimal balance between (a) meeting investment demand in our core and growth areas through re-investments of our retained earnings, and (b) directly providing returns to shareholders by paying out cash dividends.
- In addition to the above, in relation to share buyback toward improving capital efficiency, we judge that the decision by the board of directors in a prompt and flexible manner as needed concerning its timing and amount by taking into consideration of the business environment such as, future investment activity trends, free cash flow and interest-bearing debt levels, and return on equity, continues to contribute to enhancement of corporate value.

For the year ending March 31, 2016, as a second year of the New Medium-term Management Plan, we currently envisage an annual dividend of ¥64 per share, same amount as the year ended March 31, 2015, taking into consideration of EBITDA, core operating cash flow as well as stability and continuity of the amount of dividend, on the assumption that profit for the year attributable to owners of the parent will be ¥240 billion, as mentioned in our forecast profit attributable to owners of the parent for the year ending March 31, 2016.

2. Forecasts for the Year Ending March 31, 2016

Our forecasts for the year ending March 31, 2016 are as follows :

	(Billions of Yen)
	Forecast for the year ending March 31, 2016	Year ended March 31, 2015	Change
Gross Profit	740.0	845.8	(105.8)
Share of Profit of Investments Accounted for Using the Equity Method	190.0	144.6	45.4
Profit for the Year Attributable to Owners of the Parent	240.0	306.5	(66.5)
EBITDA	660.0	788.3	(128.3)

Note : The above forecast is based on an exchange rate assumption of ¥120/US$ (¥110.62/US$ for the year ended March 31, 2015) and a crude oil price assumption of US$63/barrel (US$103/barrel for the year ended March 31, 2015).

Gross profit for the year ending March 31, 2016 is expected to be ¥740.0 billion, reflecting the decline in crude oil and iron ore prices. The reversal effects of impairment losses on fixed assets of Eagle Ford shale oil and gas producing operations as well as oil and gas fields in the North Sea are expected. Dividend income for the year ending March 31, 2016 is expected to be ¥60.0 billion, reflecting the decline in dividend from LNG projects. Share of Profit of Investments Accounted for Using the Equity Method is expected to be ¥190.0 billion, reflecting reversal effects of the one-time negative impact and decline in earnings from equity method investments of resource and energy. For income taxes, reversal effects of the one-time positive impact due to reduction of Japanese corporate income tax rate are forecasted.

As a result, EBITDA and profit for the year attributable to owners of the parent for the year ending March 31, 2016 are expected to be ¥660.0 billion and ¥240.0 billion, respectively.

3. Remuneration of Directors and Corporate Auditors

The remuneration system for Directors has an emphasis on transparency by examining compensation and bonuses for Directors and Executive Officers by the Remuneration Committee, which is chaired by an External Director.

This system comprises a basic fixed remuneration for Directors of no more than ¥70 million per month in total, results-linked bonuses in the total amount of 0.1% of profit for the year attributable to owners of the parent (with an upper limit of ¥500 million), and stock-based compensation stock options with stock price conditions as medium- to long-term incentive compensation of no more than ¥500 million per year.

Given the difficulty of correlating results-linked compensation for External Directors and Corporate Auditors, who carry out their duties independently from management, External Directors and Corporate Auditors are paid fixed remuneration only.

The fixed remuneration paid to Corporate Auditors has an upper limit of ¥20 million per month in total.

The systems of special retirement compensation for Directors and Corporate Auditors were abolished on July 1, 2004.

The remuneration of the Company's Directors and Corporate Auditors regarding the year ended March 31, 2015, was as follows :

	Number of Recipients	Basic Remuneration	Bonus	Stock Option	Total Remuneration Paid Relating to the Year Ended March 31, 2015
Directors (Excluding External Directors)	11	¥737 million	¥307 million	¥120 million	¥1,164 million
Corporate Auditors (Excluding External Corporate Auditors)	2	¥113 million	–	–	¥113 million
External Directors and External Corporate Auditors	9	¥93 million	–	–	¥93 million
Total	22	¥943 million	¥307 million	¥120 million	¥1,370 million

Notes :

1. The bonuses shown above are planned payments.
2. The stock options above show the amount recognized as expenses during the fiscal year under review, of the expenses related to stock options (The 2014 First Subscription Rights to Shares of the Company) to be allotted to nine Directors (excluding External Directors).
3. In addition to the above amounts, a total of ¥604 million was paid to 132 retired Directors, and ¥62 million to 19 retired Corporate Auditors, as pensions (representing payments determined prior to the abolition of those systems).
4. Amounts are rounded down to the nearest ¥1 million.

Pursuant to the fourth paragraph of Article 444 of the Companies Act, we have audited the consolidated financial statements, namely, the consolidated statement of financial position as of March 31, 2015 of Mitsui & Co., Ltd. (the "Company") and its consolidated subsidiaries, and the consolidated statements of income, and changes in equity for the fiscal year from April 1, 2014 to March 31, 2015, and the related notes.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements pursuant to the provisions of the second sentence of the first paragraph of Article 120 of the Ordinance on Company Accounting which allows companies to prepare consolidated financial statements with the omission of a part of the disclosures required under International Financial Reporting Standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Audit Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above, prepared with the omission of a part of the disclosures required under International Financial Reporting Standards pursuant to the provisions of the second sentence of the first paragraph of Article 120 of the Ordinance on Company Accounting, present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries as of March 31, 2015, and the results of their operations for the year then ended.

Interest

Our firm and the engagement partners do not have any interest in the Company for which disclosure is required under the provisions of the Certified Public Accountants Act.

Pursuant to the first item, second paragraph of Article 436 of the Companies Act, we have audited the financial statements, namely, the balance sheet as of March 31, 2015 of Mitsui & Co., Ltd. (the "Company"), and the related statements of income and changes in net assets for the 96th fiscal year from April 1, 2014 to March 31, 2015, and the related notes and the accompanying supplemental schedules.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements and the accompanying supplemental schedules in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements and the accompanying supplemental schedules that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and the accompanying supplemental schedules based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and the accompanying supplemental schedules are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and the accompanying supplemental schedules. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements and the accompanying supplemental schedules, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements and the accompanying supplemental schedules in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements and the accompanying supplemental schedules.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Audit Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements and the accompanying supplemental schedules referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of March 31, 2015, and the results of its operations for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan.

Interest

Our firm and the engagement partners do not have any interest in the Company for which disclosure is required under the provisions of the Certified Public Accountants Act.

Corporate Auditors' Report

Having examined the Directors' performance of their duties during the 96th fiscal year from April 1, 2014 to March 31, 2015, we, the Board of Corporate Auditors, make this report as follows, based upon discussion on the basis of the auditors' reports submitted by the respective Corporate Auditors :

1. METHODS AND SUBSTANCE OF AUDIT BY CORPORATE AUDITORS AND BOARD OF CORPORATE AUDITORS

The Board of Corporate Auditors decided upon auditing policies, allocation of work duties, etc., received a report on the auditing work performed and its results from each Corporate Auditor, and received a report on their status of work executed from the Directors and the Independent Auditor and requested their explanations as necessary.

While conforming to the auditing standards as decided by the Board of Corporate Auditors, the auditing policies, the allocation of duties, etc., each Corporate Auditor endeavored to facilitate mutual understanding with the Directors, the internal auditing division, other employees and the Independent Auditor endeavored to collect information and to improve the auditing environment, attended the meetings of the Board of Directors and other important meetings, received reports on their status of work executed from the Directors and the employees and requested their explanations as necessary, inspected material internal decision-making documents, etc., and investigated the status of operations and assets of the headquarters and major business sites. In addition, regular reports were received and explanations given by directors and employees, and audits were conducted, including expressing opinions, covering the substance of decisions made by the Board of Directors with regard to "Necessary systems to ensure appropriate operations" (pursuant to Article 362(4)(6) of the Companies Act of Japan) and of the status of construction and operation of the systems actually developed on the basis of those decisions (the "internal control systems"). With respect to subsidiaries, we endeavored to facilitate mutual understanding and exchanging of information with their directors, corporate auditors, etc., and collected reports on their business as necessary. Based on the above methods, the business report and its supplementary schedules for the relevant fiscal year were examined.

In addition, we examined whether the independence of the Independent Auditor was maintained and whether appropriate audit was being undertaken, received reports from the Independent Auditor on the status of operations, and requested explanations as necessary. We also received reports from the Independent Auditor that "Necessary systems to ensure appropriate execution of operations" (pursuant to Article 131 of the Corporate Accounting Regulations of Japan) was duly developed in line with "Quality control standards for auditing" (issued by the Japan Corporate Accounting Council on October 28, 2005), and requested explanations as necessary. Based on the above methods, we examined the financial statements for the relevant fiscal year (the balance sheet, the statements of income, the changes in shareholders' equity and the notes to non-consolidated financial statements) and their supplementary schedules and then the consolidated financial statements for the relevant fiscal year (the consolidated balance sheet, the statements of consolidated income, the statements of consolidated shareholders' equity and the notes to consolidated financial statements).

Regarding internal control of financial reporting, the Directors and Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu LLC provided us with reports assessing the internal control procedures and audit status, as well as explanations where necessary.

2. RESULTS OF AUDIT

(1) Results of examination of the business report, etc.

- a) In our opinion, the business report and its supplementary schedules are in conformity with the applicable laws and regulations of Japan and the Articles of Incorporation of the Company and fairly present the state of the Company's affairs;
- b) We have found no misconduct or material fact constituting a violation of any applicable laws and regulations of Japan or the Articles of Incorporation in connection with the Directors' performance of their duties; and
- c) In our opinion, the substance of the decisions made by the Board of Directors with regard to the internal control systems is appropriate. Furthermore, we find no matters that require noting with regard to the Directors' performance of their duties or the details contained in the Business Report in connection with the internal control systems.

(2) Results of examination of the financial statements and their supplementary schedules

In our opinion, the auditing methods used and the conclusions reached by the Independent Auditor, Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu LLC, are appropriate.

(3) Results of examination of the consolidated financial statements

In our opinion, the auditing methods used and the conclusions reached by the Independent Auditor, Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu LLC, are appropriate.

Proposed Resolutions and Related Information

【Items proposed by the Company (Items 1 through 3)】

Item 1: Dividend of Surplus for the 96th Fiscal Year

Regarding the distribution of profits, in order to increase corporate value and maximize shareholder value, we seek to maintain an optimal balance between meeting investment demand in our core and growth areas through the reinvestment of our retained earnings, and directly providing returns to shareholders by paying out cash dividends, with the consolidated dividend payout ratio as a specific indicator. Under the New Medium-term Management Plan announced in May 2014, we established a consolidated dividend payout ratio of 30%. In the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015, profit for the year attributable to owners of the parent was ¥306.5 billion, but we maintained an annual dividend of ¥64 per share (including an interim dividend of ¥32), calculated by applying the 30% dividend payout ratio to forecast consolidated earnings at the start of the year of ¥380.0 billion, and we intend to pay a year-end dividend of ¥32 per share for the 96th fiscal year as follows.

(1) Type of Dividend Payment

Cash

(2) Items Relating to Dividend Payment and the Total Amount Distributed to Shareholders

Payment of a dividend of ¥32.00 per ordinary share, for a total payment of ¥57,368,589,472

An interim dividend of ¥32.00 per ordinary share was paid in December 2014, which would result in an annual dividend for the 96th fiscal year of ¥64.00 per ordinary share.

(3) Date that the Dividend of Surplus Became Effective

June 22, 2015

Item 2: Election of Fourteen (14) Directors

The terms of office for all the current Directors will expire at the conclusion of the 96th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. Accordingly, the Company proposes to elect fourteen (14) Directors.

Based on the deliberations of the Nomination Committee, which serves as an advisory body to the Board of Directors of the Company, the Board of Directors has selected the following candidates for the position of Director.

Notes :

- Among the candidates for director, Mr. Ikujiro Nonaka, Mr. Hiroshi Hirabayashi, Mr. Toshiro Muto, Ms. Izumi Kobayashi, and Ms. Jenifer Rogers are candidates for External Director. Each of these candidates meets the standards set by the Company for selection as External Director.
- The Company has submitted filings with the domestic stock exchanges on which it is listed designating four candidates for External Director, Mr. Nonaka, Mr. Hirabayashi, Mr. Muto, and Ms. Kobayashi, as independent Directors. Moreover, the Company will submit filings with the domestic stock exchanges on which it is listed designating Ms. Rogers as Independent Director.
- The Company has entered into agreements with Mr. Nonaka, Mr. Hirabayashi, Mr. Muto, and Ms. Kobayashi pursuant to Article 427(1) of the Companies Act of Japan, to limit their liability to the minimum amount of liability as stipulated in Article 425(1) of the Companies Act. Upon approval of this Item, the aforementioned limited liability agreements shall be continued and the same limited liability agreement shall be newly executed with Ms. Rogers.
- Mr. Hirabayashi's eldest daughter is an employee (in a non-managerial position) of the Company.
- The Company paid a membership fee to The Japan-India Association, of which Mr. Hirabayashi has been serving as the President since June 2007, however, the amount is small. The Company paid a membership fee and made financial contributions to the Japan Association of Corporate Executives at which Ms. Kobayashi served as Vice Chairperson from May 2007 to April 2009, and at which she has served in the same position since April 2015, however, the amount is small. There is no special interest between each of the candidates for External Director and the organizations at which the candidates for External Director are concurrently posted, and the Company that would interfere with or raise problems with regard to their performance of their duties as External Directors.
- Mr. Kato's name as it appears in his family registry is written with a different character in Japanese.

Item 3: Election of Three (3) Corporate Auditors

Corporate Auditor Kunihiro Matsuo will be retired, and the term of office of Corporate Auditor Satoru Miura and Motonori Murakami will expire as of the conclusion of the 96th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.

Accordingly, the Company newly proposes to elect three (3) Corporate Auditors.

The candidates for Corporate Auditors follow below. This nomination has been consented to by the Board of Corporate Auditors.

【Selection Standards for External Directors】

- 1) The Company has decided that as the selection standard for External Directors, the prospective person's extensive business experience and knowledge is required to deliberate on such board meeting proposals as investments and loans, and knowledge of his or her particular area of business should be used.
- 2) The Company has decided that in selecting External Directors, Mitsui should put great value on ensuring their independence from Mitsui in the pursuit of their management oversight functions. Also, with a view to overseeing business operations in a way that reflects the standpoint of our diverse stakeholders, in selecting External Directors, Mitsui shall take into consideration the fields from which candidates originate, along with their gender.
- 3) Given that Mitsui is a general trading company with extensive business dealings, it has been decided to make appropriate efforts by the Board of Directors to handle with likely conflicts of interest involving the prospective External Director in individual transactions with external parties.

【Selection Standards for External Corporate Auditors】

The External Corporate Auditors shall be selected with the objective of further heightening the neutrality and independence of the auditing system, and in particular it is expected that the external auditors will give objective voice to their auditing opinions from the standpoint of neutrality, building on such factors as that independence. When selecting candidates for External Corporate Auditors, the Board of Corporate Auditors shall confirm that no issues with independence arise by taking into consideration such factors as relations with the company, management and important staff members.

【Items proposed by a shareholder (Items 4 through 12)】

Items 4 through 12 were proposed by one shareholder.

The title of each Item and its purpose, details and reasons are shown below in the order of proposal and in its original wording as submitted by the proposing shareholder, excluding any change in proposal number.

◆ Opinion of the Board of Directors on shareholder proposals :

The Board of Directors opposes all of Items 4 through 12.

The Board of Directors believes that the Company, as a general trading company, contributes to the shared interests of shareholders by realizing mid- to long-term growth and increasing corporate value by cultivating and developing new business agilely responding the times and to changes in the operating environment. To achieve this, quick managerial decisions and execution of duties in step with current trends are necessary. Under the Companies Act, it is the basic principle that the execution of the business operation of the company is made in accordance with the decisions of the meeting of the Board of Directors. At the Company's Board of Directors meetings, there is active debate with the attendance of multiple External Directors and External Corporate Auditors with a wide range of backgrounds, who are appointed by the shareholders of the Company, and there exists a framework for making appropriate management decisions and determination of business execution, while performing duties and responsibilities related to corporate governance. Therefore, we believe that the matters relating to the shareholder proposals would be best handled based on quick managerial decisions and execution of duties by the Board of Directors elected by the shareholders as well as the corporate managers appointed by the Board of Directors.

For individual opinions of the Board of Directors with regard to these Items, please refer to the descriptions of each Item.

Item 4 : Partial Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation (Addition to the Object of the Company in the Articles of Incorporation)

(Company Note) The purpose, details and reasons of proposal are shown in its original wording as submitted by the proposing shareholder.

(1) Purpose of the proposal

In preparation for future business, “Object of the Company” provided for in Article 2 of Chapter 1 “General Provisions” of the current Articles of Incorporation shall be partially amended.

(2) Details of the proposal

Details of the amendment are as follows.

(The underlined portions are changes.)

Chapter 1. General Provisions

(Object of the Company)

Article 2. The object of the Company shall be to engage in the following business :

In order to obtain the trust of consumers and society, the Company shall proactively pursue compliance in its business management and carry out highly transparent business operations.

(3) Reasons for the proposal

The Company has built up reputation as a “good company” over a long period of years through the efforts of various predecessors. However, in this rapidly changing world, there have been frequent instances of misconduct in recent times, and the issue of the importance of obeying social rules and behaving as an organization has truly started to come under scrutiny. It is necessary for the Company, which operates businesses round the clock in various regions of the world, to fully face up various problems, proactively overcome them, and make the results known widely in society. If a company is satisfied with merely formulating a “voluntary code of conduct” to prevent company misconduct, it will be left behind the times. I propose that the Company clearly show society its resolve to address such issues, and that it clearly indicate its resolve to operate fair and responsible businesses in its Articles of Incorporation.

◆ Opinion of the Board of Directors: We oppose Item 4.

The Company positions the securing of a compliance structure as an important management issue, in the belief that trust is the foundation of business, and compliance is an essential qualification for protecting trust. In order that the entire Group, including group companies, may continue to be a corporate group that has the full trust of society, we are focused on ensuring that every single employee is fully aware of compliance, and building a compliance structure on a global group base. As specific policies aimed at improving the compliance structure, we have established a Compliance Committee with the CCO as its Chairman, and also manage compliance through regular line of management at business division and department level. In addition, we have established Compliance Supervising Officers at domestic and overseas business units, branch offices, and others. Going forward, we intend to aggressively implement policies aimed at improving the compliance structure, centered on the Compliance Committee, and believe there is no need to establish an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation. We therefore are opposed to this Item as the Board of Directors.

Item 5 : Partial Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation (Addition to the Object of the Company in the Articles of Incorporation)

(Company Note) The purpose, details and reasons of proposal are shown in its original wording as submitted by the proposing shareholder.

(1) Purpose of the proposal

In preparation for future corporate management, paragraph 27 shall be added to “Object of the Company” provided for in Article 2 of Chapter 1 of the current Articles of Incorporation.

(2) Details of the proposal

Establishment of Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Power Plant (Fukushima Daiichi) Accident Response Business Unit

(3) Reasons for the proposal

The Company carried out work in the 1970s as an agent of GE, the main contractor, in the construction of Fukushima Daiichi Units 1, 2 and 6. Later, Fukushima Daiichi was hit by an unprecedented catastrophe. The emergency power source was flooded and the cooling function was lost. Subsequently, there was a hydrogen explosion at reactor building of Unit 1 (March 12, 2011), a large external emission of radioactive material from Unit 2 (6:00 am on March 15, 2011) and a continuing nuclear meltdown of the reactor. Even now, at least 400 tons of groundwater is flooding into the basements of the building each day, and in February 2015 it was discovered that highly contaminated water had flooded by accident into the ocean from a drainage system. In the past year, the natural environment has been put in a situation in which it is difficult to say that the radiation is being controlled. Little progress is being made in countermeasures against contaminated water, which constitute preliminary action in decommissioning the power plant, and the victims of the accident are still suffering its effects. It is time to repay Fukushima. I propose that the Company urgently establish a Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Power Plant Accident Response Business Unit in order to flexibly supply necessities for daily life and necessary goods, technologies, services and the like using the worldwide network of the Company, not only to the victims of the Fukushima Daiichi nuclear accident but also to residents of the affected areas.

◆ Opinion of the Board of Directors: We oppose Item 5.

The Articles of Incorporation of a stock company determine the basic matters of that company. Meanwhile, the specific field in which the Company engages in business is a matter relating to business execution that requires a swift and appropriate response, and which we believe should be responded to flexibly by the Board of Directors based on appropriate information, not determined by the Articles of Incorporation, which require a special resolution by the General Meeting of Shareholders to change. As a general trading company that engages in many diverse businesses, the Company will need to quickly develop new business areas in future, but the passage of this Item would result in excessive indications to the Object of the Company in the Articles of Incorporation, hindering the flexibility of management, and harming the shared interests of shareholders. Meanwhile, judging from the composition of the Board of Directors of the Company, there is no danger of harm to the shared interests of shareholders, even when designated to determination of business execution at the Board of Directors. We therefore are opposed to this Item as the Board of Directors.

Furthermore, the Company already provides ongoing support to disaster-stricken areas within the scope of the existing Object of the Company, and thus from this viewpoint, there is no need for an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation.

Item 6 : Partial Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation (Addition to the Object of the Company in the Articles of Incorporation)

(Company Note) The purpose, details and reasons of proposal are shown in its original wording as submitted by the proposing shareholder.

(1) Purpose of the proposal

In preparation for future corporate management, paragraph 5 shall be newly added to Article 4 of Chapter 1 “General Provisions” of the current Articles of Incorporation.

(2) Details of the proposal

5. Corporate Ethics Committee

(Number of committee members) A total of 8 members publicly invited, consisting of 3 general employees, 3 employees holding managerial post and 2 External Directors. The committee shall inspect overseas businesses, and, by a majority, report results to the management, and provide rectification recommendations and opinions on the form the Company should be. The management shall not refuse the recommendations and opinions of the committee without reasonable grounds.

(3) Reasons for the proposal

It is difficult for the head office to keep an accurate grasp of the businesses the Company is operating overseas. Incidents including a bribe given to a government party’s treasurer by the parent company of a partner company in the Spain solar power project, and bid-rigging in the bidding process for railway maintenance and management in Brazil (the public prosecutor pointed out that, although Mitsui did not participate in the bidding, “there is proof that it was involved in the bid-rigging,” according to Jiji Press De Sao Paulo) suggest that compliance at the Company’s overseas businesses is in a parlous state. There have been no appropriate explanations from the Company. The shareholders are anxious about the direction of the management of these businesses. Regarding the Spain incident, this question was also asked at the General Meeting of Shareholders two years ago. The answer to this was: “we are aware from media reports that an investigation is underway into whether there was an improper donation made by the former president of a Group company. At present there is no further information. We will continue to monitor this matter.” There is a lack of urgency apparent in this answer. In order to prevent similar scandals, I propose the establishment of a Corporate Ethics Committee that is independent from management and inspects businesses in a timely and appropriate manner from the perspectives of social fairness and compliance with corporate ethics.

◆ Opinion of the Board of Directors: We oppose Item 6.

The establishment of an internal structure for corporate ethics is a matter relating to business execution that requires a swift and appropriate response, and which we believe should be responded to flexibly by the Board of Directors based on appropriate information, not determined by the Articles of Incorporation, which require a special resolution by the General Meeting of Shareholders to change. The Company has already established a Compliance Committee with external attorneys as observers, as a place for the discussion of general matters related to compliance, including corporate ethics. Also, in addition to business management both in Japan and overseas by the departments in charge, Internal Auditing Division, under the direct control of the President carries out the independent and objective evaluation and appropriate management of areas including the effectiveness of management and business operations, the effectiveness of the compliance structure, and the reliability of financial reporting. We thus believe there is no need to establish a new committee. We therefore are opposed to this Item as the Board of Directors.

Item 7 : Partial Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation (Deletion of Provisions from the Articles of Incorporation)

(Company Note) The purpose, details and reasons of proposal are shown in its original wording as submitted by the proposing shareholder.

(1) Purpose of the proposal

To restore shareholder governance, Article 7 “Acquisition of Company Shares by Resolution of the Board of Directors” in Chapter 2 “Shares” of the Articles of Incorporation shall be deleted.

(2) Details of the proposal

Deletion of Article 7 (the Company may acquire its own shares through market transactions or otherwise following a resolution by the Board of Directors)

(3) Reasons for the proposal

This proposal received 16.7% approval (2,180,000 voting rights) at last year’s General Meeting of Shareholders. Although the proposal was refused, a relatively significant number of shareholders approved the proposal. The Company sidestepped the issue by saying that it would “consider this flexibly in light of the management environment from time to time,” but in the past year, the Company has not even given a hint of doing so. “Shareholder returns” is merely used as a hackneyed expression while the stock price falls, and drops in raw material prices exacerbate this further. Stating that “we will decide this appropriately at the Board of Directors” seems to have been an empty promise. The repurchase of shares worth ¥50 billion in February of last year is no excuse. While our Management spares no expense using up bountiful cash flows to rebuild the head office building (approximately ¥170 billion), they rested on their laurels as holders of the absolute right of “corporate managers” to maintain the “resolution of the Board of Directors” bestowed by the shareholder “owners” in the Articles of Incorporation, and continued to keep shareholders out of the loop. This is unreasonable. It would be reasonable to centralize the power to acquire own shares with the shareholders and, based on “authorization resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders,” work towards the flexible acquisition of own shares through market transactions, etc. I therefore propose again that Article 7 be deleted.

◆ Opinion of the Board of Directors: We oppose Item 7.

The Company is managed with an awareness of capital efficiency, and a share buyback of ¥50 billion was made by resolution of the Board of Directors in February 2014. At a meeting held in May 2014, the Board of Directors decided a framework under the New Medium-Term Management Plan for allocating recurring free cash flow between new investments for growth and shareholder return. Regarding the allocation between investment in growth areas etc. and shareholder return, including share buybacks through market transactions etc., we believe that it will contribute to the improvement of corporate value if the Board of Directors, which has a range of External Directors and is fully capable of carrying out its responsibilities, responds flexibly to this matter based on appropriate information. Also, establishing an amount as the limit on a share buyback will itself raise expectations related to the Company repurchasing its own shares, and regardless of whether or not the Company repurchases shares, it may significantly impact the investment decisions of participants in equity markets. Therefore, we believe this matter should be decided upon after full consideration by the Board of Directors. Furthermore, under the current Articles of Incorporation, both the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors have the authority to decide on share buybacks through market transactions etc., but in the event that the Articles of Incorporation were changed in line with the passage of this Item, the opportunity to examine and make decisions regarding the necessity and amount of share buybacks would be limited to the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held once a year, excluding any Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. This would narrow the options available for making flexible decisions regarding share buybacks, and harm the shared interests of shareholders. We therefore are opposed to this Item as the Board of Directors.

Item 8 : Partial Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation (Addition of Provisions to the Articles of Incorporation)

(Company Note) The purpose, details and reasons of proposal are shown in its original wording as submitted by the proposing shareholder.

(1) Purpose of the proposal

In preparation for future corporate management, Chapter 8 shall be newly added to the Articles of Incorporation.

(2) Details of the proposal

Chapter 8: Work to rebuild the head office building shall be carried out on condition of the Company achieving return on equity (ROE) of 12% under International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS).

(3) Reasons for the proposal

Dark clouds have started to gather around various overseas investment business projects into which the Company has channeled the “money” of shareholders. Although the CFO used the word “plummet” when speaking about raw material prices at the Financial Results Briefing for the third quarter of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015, the shareholders asked for a rally in the stock price, which sank fast. They are still enduring this situation. In the midst of this situation, the Company started its plan to rebuild the head office premises, which seems non-essential. (In August 2013, the Company reached basic agreement with Mitsui Fudosan regarding an integrated block development project for the block of 1-2, Ohtemachi, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo). It is difficult to understand the management sense in recklessly spending ¥120.0 billion (the Company’s portion) on this plan using the Company’s sound positive free cash flow (also mentioned by the CFO) as a resource. It is also understandable that shareholders consider this to be malfeasance. Efficient business management is a pressing issue. Therefore, I propose that it be clarified in the Articles of Incorporation that “work to rebuild the head office building” shall be carried out on condition of the Company achieving ROE of 12%.

◆ Opinion of the Board of Directors: We oppose Item 8.

The rebuilding of office buildings is a matter relating to business execution that requires a swift and appropriate response, and which we believe should be responded to flexibly by the Board of Directors based on appropriate information, not determined by the Articles of Incorporation, which require a special resolution by the General Meeting of Shareholders to change. This construction to rebuild the head office building is necessary and unavoidable owing to the aging of the building, and at the same time, we aim to take this chance to improve the environmental performance of the building, including energy-efficiency, improve disaster prevention functions, and increase productivity via an efficient office. We do not think this should be swayed by the content of performance indicators, and believe there is no need for an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation. We therefore are opposed to this Item as the Board of Directors.

Item 9 : Partial Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation (New Establishment of Provisions in the Articles of Incorporation)

(Company Note) The purpose, details and reasons of proposal are shown in its original wording as submitted by the proposing shareholder.

(1) Purpose of the proposal

In preparation for future corporate management, Article 27 “Counselors” shall be established in Chapter 4 of the current Articles of Incorporation and matters such as the method of appointing counselors and their roles shall be clarified.

(2) Details of the proposal

(Counselors) Article 27: The Company may appoint counselors (mandatory retirement age of 70) by resolution of Directors and receive advice regarding the Company’s operations from them.

(3) Reasons for the proposal

The practice in which person who served as President or Chairman automatically becomes a counselor is not transparent. While it is true that “old soldiers never die; they just fade away,” even without high remuneration, if a counselor is invited, he or she should be able to give advice to the “company” that has treated him or her well. If the person who served as President or Chairman is perpetually enshrined in a company like a god to be prayed to, the people below this person will wither away. For this fiscal year, I ask that the new President scheduled to take office renounce the “authority” of his predecessors and instead exercise his “wisdom” and “wit” as much as he would like. In turn, this will help to improve corporate value and maximize shareholder value. I propose that the Company clarify the counselor system and, at the same time introduce a system of compulsory retirement at 70 for this position.

◆ Opinion of the Board of Directors: We oppose Item 9.

What type of system the Company uses to utilize human resources is a matter relating to business execution that requires a swift and appropriate response, and which we believe should be responded to flexibly by the Board of Directors based on appropriate information, not determined by the Articles of Incorporation, which require a special resolution by the General Meeting of Shareholders to change. Also, the appointment, role, and term of a counselor should be judged on an individual basis, based on that person’s experience, qualities, etc., and establishing a mandatory retirement age system in the Articles of Incorporation risks being an obstacle to the securement of useful human resources. We therefore are opposed to this Item as the Board of Directors.

Item 10 : Dismissal of One (1) External Director

(Company Note) The details and reasons of proposal are shown in its original wording as submitted by the proposing shareholder.

(1) Details of the proposal

I propose the dismissal of the following Director :

1 Ikujiro Nonaka (External Director)

(2) Reasons for the proposal

Regarding this Director, the Company states: "Mr. Nonaka is being nominated as an External Director so that the management may benefit from his deep insight and supervisory capabilities related to management gained over the years as an expert in international corporate strategy" (as "deemed" by the Company) ("Item 3: Election of Thirteen (13) Directors" in the previous fiscal year). However, with respect to the many instances of wide-ranging and complicated social unfair trading practices and improper conduct that have occurred in many overseas investment business projects, it is not "deemed" that this Director sufficiently fulfilled his role of providing prompt rectification recommendations and exercising an appropriate supervisory function, and acting as a conduit for the interests of shareholders. I think that, with the (expected) coming of a fresh and vigorous new President, it is appropriate to clear the ground for a young External Director, also from the perspective of generational change. Continuing the tenure of the External Director is not appropriate.

◆ Opinion of the Board of Directors: We oppose Item 10.

Since his appointment as Director, Mr. Nonaka has appropriately carried out his duties as an External Director, with a high level of management expertise and supervisory ability, gained as an expert in international corporate strategy. Also, he attended all meetings of the Board of Directors held during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015, and has also contributed to the improvement of the Company's governance structure etc. as a member of the Governance Committee and the Nomination Committee, advisory bodies to the Board of Directors. We thus believe he is qualified to be a Director of the Company. We therefore are opposed to this Item as the Board of Directors.

Item 11 : Share buyback

(Company Note) The details and reasons of proposal are shown in its original wording as submitted by the proposing shareholder.

(1) Details of the proposal

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 156 of the Companies Act, designating one year or less from the conclusion of this General Meeting of Shareholders as the transaction period, the Company shall repurchase shares in exchange of money; provided, however, that a maximum amount to be granted in exchange for repurchasing 100 million shares of common stock maximum shall be ¥150 billion (however, if such amount is lower than the total acquisition value permitted under the Companies Act (referring to the "distributable amount" provided for in Article 461 of the same Act), the amount shall be limited to the total acquisition value permitted under the Companies Act).

(2) Reasons for the proposal

This proposal received 17.7% approval at last year's General Meeting of Shareholders. Although the proposal was refused, a relatively significant number of shareholders approved the proposal. I aim to improve the ROE and the total returns to shareholders in the form of dividends and share buyback and to generate a share value increasing effect. The ¥50 billion share buyback in February of last year was very low compared to the capital increase of ¥200 billion by public offering in 2006. At the Financial Results Briefing for the third quarter of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015, the CFO said that "free cash flow was a net inflow of ¥211.5 billion." The IFRS introduced from the annual securities report for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2014 require unlisted shares that embody overseas interests to be accounted for on the balance sheet at fair value, not at acquisition cost. If the denominator shareholders' equity "E" inflates due to the fair value valuation, a low ROE of about 10% will further decline pushing down corporate value and taking our stock price down with it. This will negatively affect the investment decisions of institutional investors both in Japan and overseas. Now that the growth strategies are entering a mature phase, I once again propose that the Company return the funds the Company acquired through business operations to shareholders and strive to lift ROE and maximize shareholder value by executing a systematic Company share buyback.

◆ Opinion of the Board of Directors: We oppose Item 11.

The Company is managed with an awareness of capital efficiency, and a share buyback of ¥50 billion was made by resolution of the Board of Directors in February 2014. At a meeting held in May 2014, the Board of Directors decided a framework under the New Medium-term Management Plan for allocating recurring free cash flow between new investments for growth and shareholder return. Regarding the allocation between new investment in growth areas etc. and shareholder return, including share buybacks through market transactions etc., we believe that it will contribute to the improvement of corporate value if the Board of Directors, which has a range of External Directors and is fully capable of carrying out its responsibilities, responds flexibly to this matter based on appropriate information. Also, establishing an amount as the limit on a share buyback will itself raise expectations related to the Company repurchasing its own shares, and regardless of whether or not the Company repurchases shares, it may significantly impact the investment decisions of participants in equity markets. Therefore, we believe this matter should be decided upon after full consideration by the Board of Directors. Furthermore, the annual dividend for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015, was ¥64 per share, an increase of ¥5 from the corresponding previous year, and the consolidated dividend payout ratio was 37%. Regarding the dividend for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2016, we currently envisage an annual dividend of ¥64 per share, taking into consideration of EBITDA, core operating cash flow as well as stability and continuity of the amount of dividend in addition to the existing dividend payout ratio. Although we expect consolidated earnings to decrease, we plan to pay an annual dividend of ¥64 per share, and so we are not neglecting shareholder return. We therefore are opposed to this Item as the Board of Directors.

Item 12 : Partial Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation (Addition to the Object of the Company in the Articles of Incorporation)

(Company Note) The purpose, details and reasons of proposal are shown in its original wording as submitted by the proposing shareholder.

(1) Purpose of the proposal

In preparation for future business, paragraph 2 shall be newly added to Article 15 "Internet Posting of Reference Materials for General Meetings of Shareholders, and Deemed Provision of Information" in Chapter 3 "General Meeting of Shareholders" of the current Articles of Incorporation.

(2) Details of the proposal

Second paragraph: In order to establish shareholder democracy, the Company shall use the same disclosure methods for "shareholder proposals" stated in the Reference Materials for the Exercise of Voting Rights as it uses for the Company proposals in terms of character and line spacing.

(3) Reasons for the proposal

In the Reference Materials for the Exercise of Voting Rights for last year's 95th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, the shareholder proposals were compressed in terms of character and line spacing in comparison with the Company proposals, and this put them at a disadvantage for visual effect. I propose that the Company use the same disclosure methods for both, and openly and fairly establish shareholder democracy for all items when putting them up for voting.

◆ Opinion of the Board of Directors: We oppose Item 12.

The way shareholder proposals are set forth in Reference Materials for the Exercise of Voting Rights may differ from the way Company proposals are set forth, but this is because they are set forth in limited space in consideration of the number of proposals etc., and this does not represent unfair treatment, and nor is it in violation of any rules or regulations. We therefore are opposed to this Item as the Board of Directors.

Execution of Voting Rights in Writing or Electronically
(via the Internet or Other Means)

- If voting in writing, please mail your completed voting card (enclosed) to arrive by 5 : 30pm (Japan standard time) on Thursday, June 18, 2015.
- If voting via the Internet, please review the following and complete the voting procedure by 5 : 30pm (Japan standard time) on Thursday, June 18, 2015.
1. Voting rights may only be exercised via the Company's designated website for the exercise of voting rights (<http://www.web54.net>).
 - 1) Access the website, and following the directions on the screen, enter the voting rights code printed on the right-hand side of the voting card.
 - 2) Enter the password printed on the right-hand side of the voting card, and to prevent unauthorized third-party access or alterations of votes cast, enter a new password.

If you have received this convocation notice by e-mail, the password printed on the right-hand side of the voting card will be shown as "". Therefore please enter the password you designated when you registered your e-mail address.
 2. Where votes have been cast several times over the Internet, the vote cast last will be taken as the validly exercised vote.
 3. Where votes have been cast in duplicate on both the Internet and by voting card, the vote that arrives at the Company latest (in time) will be taken as the validly exercised vote. Further, in the event that duplicate votes arrive at the Company on the same day, votes cast on the Internet will be taken as the validly exercised votes.
 4. In order to use the Internet voting website, it may be necessary to incur Internet service provider connection fees and data transmission fees (phone charges), the cost of which shall be borne by the shareholder.
 5. Where shareholders access the Internet from their workplace, there are cases where communications over the Internet are restricted by the employer setting up firewalls, etc. Please check with the relevant person.
- Safekeeping of passwords
1. Passwords provided at this time will only be valid for this Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. A new password will be provided for next year's Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.
 2. Passwords are the means by which people exercising voting rights are confirmed as shareholders. Please keep these passwords safe until the close of the Meeting. Further, the Company cannot respond to password enquiries by phone.
 3. Please note that if an incorrect password is entered an excessive multiple times, the shareholder will be unable to access the main screen.

☑ The following system specifications necessary in order to utilize the voting website

1. Access using a PC

- (1) The PC must be able to access the Internet.
- (2) The PC's monitor resolution must be at least 800 x 600 pixels (wide by long – SVGA).
- (3) The following applications must be installed on the PC :

- Microsoft® Internet Explorer Version 5.01 Service Pack 2 or above
- Adobe® Reader® Version 6.0 or above

(This will be necessary when shareholders view the “Notice of Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders” over the Internet.)

(Microsoft® and Internet Explorer, Adobe® Reader® are registered trademarks, trademarks, or product names of Microsoft Corporation and Adobe Systems Incorporated, respectively, in the United States and other countries.)

2. Access using a mobile phone terminal

The model of the mobile phone must be installed with 128 bit SSL (Secure Socket Layer) capable of encrypted communication as well as be able to receive the following services :

- i-mode
- EZweb
- Yahoo! Mobile

(i-mode, EZweb, Yahoo!, and Yahoo! Mobile are registered trademarks, trademarks, or service names of NTT DOCOMO INC., KDDI Corporation, Yahoo! Inc., of the United States, and SOFTBANK MOBILE Corp., respectively.)

(Regardless of whether the mobile phone fulfill the above conditions, when shareholders access the voting website via a full browser application by mobile phone, or by using a phone system as only for data communication terminal to access through PC, or by using smartphone, such access means will be taken as equivalent to voting using a PC.)

☑ Use of the platform for the electronic exercise of votes for institutional investors

When institutional investors have made prior application for use of the platform for the electronic exercise of votes operated by ICJ, Inc. they may, as an alternative to exercising voting rights over the Internet as detailed above, use such a platform as another way of electronically exercising voting rights at the Company's Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.
