

Map of Mitsui Grain Business Development

(1) UGC (United Grain Corporation)

A Mitsui's 100% subsidiary. Grain Collection and export business. Owning a grain export terminal in the Pacific North West in US and one of the leading US wheat exporters. Major handling grains : wheat, soybeans and corn

(2) Multigrain AG

A Mitsui's 100% subsidiary. Farming mainly soybeans in Brazil and grain collection and export business. Major handling grains : soybeans and corn.

(3) Beidahuang

Beidahuang's allocation of new shares to Mitsui is come to agreement in Feb 2012. With the screening and approval by the Chinese government, Mitsui expects to obtain 40% share. Beidahuang develops grain origination in Heilongjiang province in the northeast China, and sales and logistics for the Chinese domestic market. Major handling grains : Corn, rice and soybeans.

(4) Plum Grove

Mitsui agreed 25% participation in Plum Grove. Mitsui and Plum Grove launched a joint wheat accumulation operation in West Australia since last year. Mitsui exports the grains accumulated in the inland of Australia. Major handling grains : wheat

(5) Sodrugesvto Group S.A.

Mitsui agreed 10% participation and entered into Strategic Alliance Agreement with Sodrugesvto in July 2012. Sodrugesvto develops oilseed crushing, manufacturing and marketing raw materials for feedstuff, and collecting and marketing grains in Russia. Major handling grains : wheat