

Contents

Top Message	1
Editorial Policy	3
Message From the Chairperson of the Sustainability Committee	4
Corporate Mission, Vision, Values	5
Sustainability at Mitsui & Co. and the Management Framework	6
Mitsui & Co.’s Stakeholders	9
Participation in Initiatives	12
Mitsui & Co.’s Materiality	15
Identification and Review of Materiality	16
Mitsui & Co.’s Approach	18
Secure sustainable supply of essential products	18
Enhance quality of life	21
Create an eco-friendly society	24
Develop talent leading to value creation	27
Build an organization with integrity	30
		Environment
		Executive Summary	33
		Environmental Management	34
		Climate Change	40
		Water Resources	45
		Circular Economy	46
		Environmental Pollution	47
		Biodiversity	48
		Environmental Performance Data	49
		Social
		Executive Summary	54
		Sustainable Supply of Resources, Energy, Materials, Food and Products	55
		Supplying Food and Products with Ensured Safety and Security	56
		Enhancement of Quality of Life and Social Infrastructure	57
		Healthcare and Aging Society	59
		Increasingly Diverse Consumer Demand	60
				Respect for Human Rights
				Supply Chain Management
				Creating New Value
				Human Resources Management
				Social Contribution Activities
				Governance
				Executive Summary
				Integrity and Compliance
				Corporate Governance and Internal Control
				Risk Management
				Response to the Novel Coronavirus (COVID-19)
				Material Issues of Mitsui & Co.’s Materiality in Association with Initiative Themes and the GRI Standards
				Evaluation by Society
				Independent Practitioner’s Assurance Report

Link buttons

Link to website

Link to related information

Cover Photo:

Mitsui & Co. has identified Mitsui’s material issues (“Materiality”) with the aim of meeting the expectations of a variety of stakeholders and realizing a better tomorrow for the earth and people around the world.

The images shown on the cover are mainly from the Report’s “Our Stories” pages, introducing Mitsui’s initiatives for each Materiality.

