Growing Together – Mitsui and Mexico

Major Milestones

- 1910: Mr. Takagi came to Mexico City to establish Representative Office.
- 1913: First Representative Office at Mexico City of the former Mitsui & Co. (Export of cotton, import of fertilizer, general merchandise etc.).
- 1947: Former Mitsui disbanded by the order of GHH.
- 1954: Supply of Tohoku’s hydro-electric power generators to El Fuerte plant of CFE.
- 1955: Daiichi Bussan was established in Mexico, later changing its name to Mitsui & Co.
- 1960’s: Changed its name to Mitsui de Mexico and move its head office to Mexico City.
- 1970’s: Supply of blast-furnace plant in Monterrey, etc.
- 1980’s: Supply of steel to Japanese and India plant.
- 1990’s: Full turn-key supply of 360 MW thermo-electric power plant in Topolobampo of CFE.
- 2000’s: Supply of 100 GE locomotive to FNM.
- 2010’s: Supply of 100 GE locomotive to FNM.

Mitsui’s major activities snapshot in Mexico

Energy sector (Hydro-carbon value chain)

- Mitsui Power Americas: 100%
- MT Falcon Holdings Compania Mexicana: 40%
- Compania de Generacion Valladolid: 50%
- Fonkor Power Mexico: 100%
- Mito Celara Solar: 90%
- Elatelec del Pacífico / Eolatlec del Istmo: 50%
- Terminal KMS de GNL: 37.5%
- Sintia Gas Pipeline: 30%
- Naturgy: 15%

Automotive sector (Mobility value chain)

- Hino Motor Sales Mexico: 65%
- Hino Motors Manufacturing Mexico: 20%
- Subaru Mexico: 100%
- Penske Logistica: 20%
- PEMEX: 30%
- Subaru Mexico: 20%
- Novos International: 100%
- Advanced Composites Mexicanos (ACI): 27%

Other sectors

- Atlas: 96%
- Komatsu Maquinarias Mexico: 40%
- Ventura Foods: 40%
- Novos International: 100%
- Adinar: 80%

Our Social Contribution

Restoring a School

- On 2013 "Painting a Public School" was selected by employees of Mitsui de Mexico (MDM) as a volunteer activity in which 46 people participated, including employees and their families and a few members of the school community, who voluntarily offered their time.

Traditional Japanese Drums

- In order to preserve an unusual Japanese culture, for several years Mitsui de Mexico (MDM) has donated traditional drums to Liceo Mexicano Japonés (LMJ), a prestigious institute of basic and intermediate education for Japanese and Nikkei children. Students are honored to learn to play these drums and show it at official ceremonies.

---

Image: Growing Together – Mitsui and Mexico